ORDER REVOKING FOREIGN CERTIFICATE

By Order 98-4-23, issued April 22, 1998, we revoked for reasons for dormancy the certificates of public convenience and necessity and the all-cargo air transportation certificate reissued to Target Airways, Ltd. d/b/a Great American Airways by Orders 93-12-33 and 95-12-39, authorizing it to engage in interstate charter and scheduled air transportation of persons, property, and mail, and interstate all-cargo air transportation, in accordance with sections 41102 and 41103 of Title 49 of the United States Code ("the Statute").

By this order, we are revoking a companion certificate authorizing Target to engage in foreign charter air transportation of persons, property, and mail. Instead of repeating our findings and conclusions in Order 98-4-23, we incorporate them here by reference.

ACCORDINGLY, acting under authority assigned by the Department in its Regulations, 14 CFR 385.12(b)(1):

1. We revoke the certificate of public convenience and necessity reissued to Target Airways, Ltd., d/b/a Great American Airways by Order 94-2-27, authorizing it to engage in foreign charter air transportation of persons, property, and mail.

under Executive Order 12597 and implementing regulations that he or she does not intend to disapprove the Department's order under that section, whichever occurs earlier.¹

This order shall be effective and become the final action of the Department of Transportation upon expiration of the above period unless, within such period, a petition for review is filed or the Department gives notice that it will review this order on its own motion.
